Open Gate Leads to $100K Settlement for Injured Robbery Victim

A young woman injured during a robbery received a legal settlement from the owner of the property where the crime occurred. The woman was on her way to work when she was robbed in a parking lot. As she tried to fight off her assailant, she suffered a leg injury. An investigation by Liever, Hyman and Potter, the Reading, Pennsylvania law firm representing the victim, found that the parking lot gate had been left open at the time because it was inoperative. The robber was never apprehended, but the lawyers obtained a settlement of $100,000 for the victim from the owner of the parking lot.
